

Raymond C. Hauley

With interest in a variety of sports, Ray has the first requirement for the physical education teacher he hopes to become. Intramurals, cross country, track, and wrestling are some of his senior high activities.

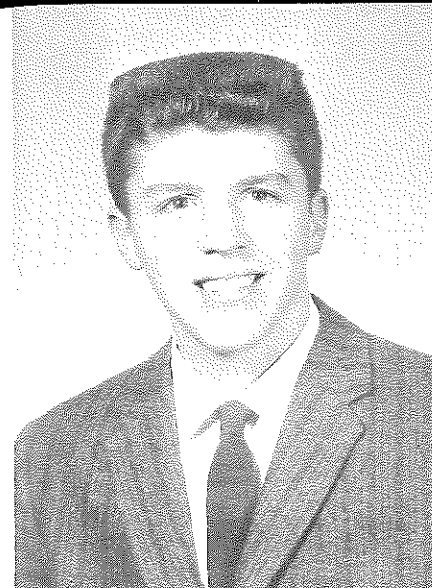

Susan Anne Hawley

Sue has been active as a representative to Class Officers and Canteen Council. She was a Songleader for three years and a member of Choir. Sue plans to study dental hygiene.

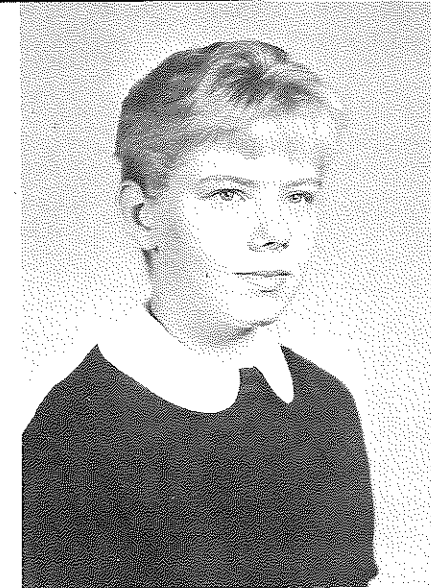

Bruce Robert Hayes

Bruce has participated in Class Officers and was president of Audio-Visual Club in his freshman year. He is active in C.Y.O. and is an avid skier. Bruce plans to enter college.

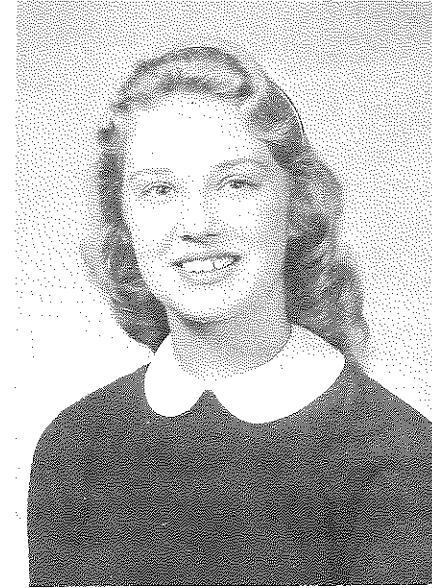

Thomas Guthric Gunn

Tom's outside activity in Hot Rod Club is consistent with his main interest in cars, and career ambition of mechanical engineering. He is often found in the library reading POPULAR MECHANICS.

Robin Jane Guyer

As a member of Charlatans, Robin played a leading part in the play "Barefoot in Athens." She has been in the Biology and Current Affairs Clubs and hopes to attend nursing school.

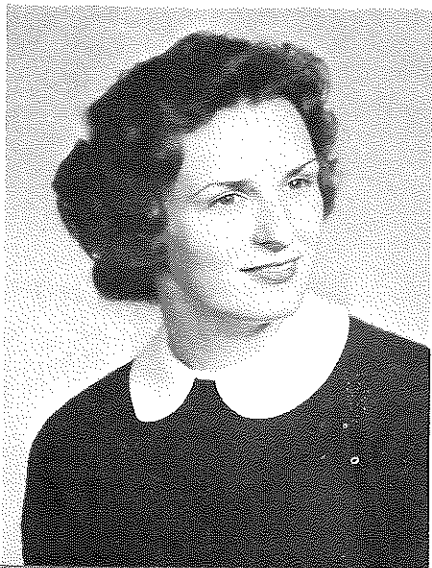

Barbara O. Gypson

A good accompanist is Bobbie who received plenty of practice with many of our musical organizations and the Senior Play. She is also the president of the Music Makers in Albany.

. . . Stars were born in the Canteen Show. . .

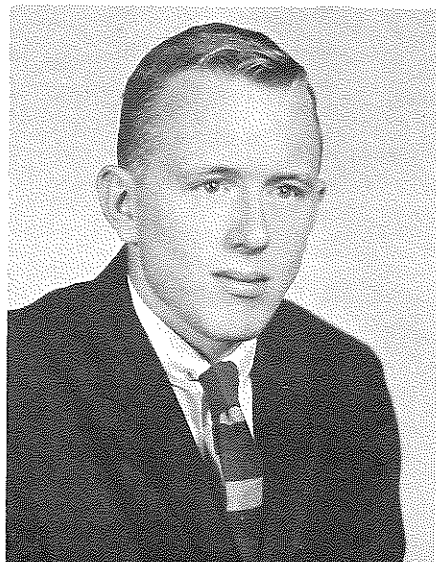

Anne Joan Hehre

Anne is a member of the Art Club and worked on the Senior Play. She is interested in skating and skiing. College is her goal after graduation.

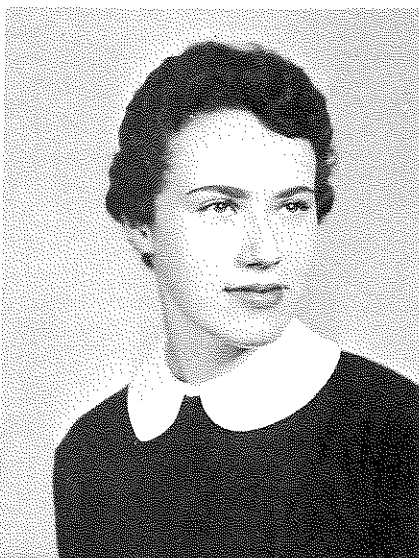

Richard Anthony Heidt

The open spaces of the fencing field and the confines of the dark room are Dick's fields of action for Fencing Club and Photography Club. Dick plans a career in advertising.

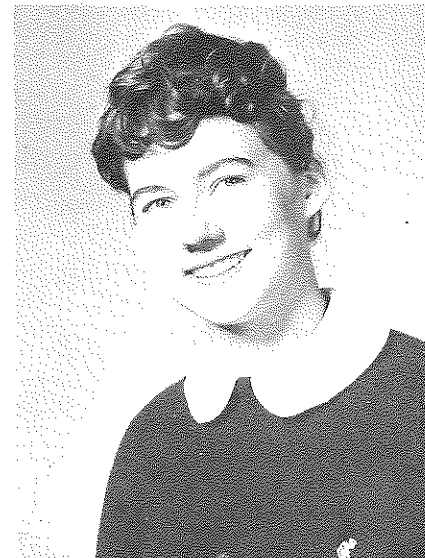

Nancy Carol Hinkel

Nancy has been a member of the French Club, the Concert Choir, and the Publicity Committee for an SA Dance. Her hobby is art and her goal is college.

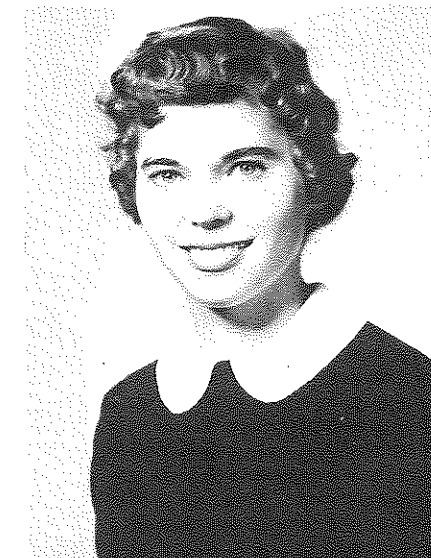

Catherine Jane Haberer

A transfer from Brookline High School, Cathy has contributed to the Senior Play, ORIOLE, and worked for the school nurse. She hopes to attend Casenovia Junior College.

Nancy Lee Hall

Nancy served on committees for the Daisy Mae Drag, Junior Class Card Party, Junior Prom, and on make-up and scenery for the senior play. She is a member of Concert Choir.

Dean Wilson Hartley

The founder and president of Pierian Society, Dean was also literary and make-up editor for STAR, director for Sock n' Saffron, and member of the Slingerland Players, Charlatans, Choir, Choraliers, and Starlighters.

